Nantucket, Mass.

Dear Mrs. Brooks:-

Last week we received the two medals which you arranged to have delivered to us at the Hotel Van Rensselaer, and the collection was arranged in the space I showed you for our meeting on last Thursday night when the award of the Saltus Medal was made. The panel attracted very considerable comment, and it gives me pleasure to express to you our appreciation of your generosity in loaning them to us as you have.

Will you please consider this brief note as a receipt for the seventeen bronze-gilt medallions which we are to consider a loan until such time as you may direct otherwise. Should any of our members indicate a willingness to purchase and present these medals to our Society, you may rest assured that we will not allow the opportunity to slip by.

Again thanking you for having given us the possibility of displaying your husband's medals, I beg to subscribe myself

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.
